Welcome Message

We welcome you to the 8ᵗʰ World Conference on Research Integrity, from June 2 to 5, 2024, in Athens, Greece. The biannual WCRIs cater for all disciplinary fields, all professional ranks, and all career stages, and involve all stakeholders in research integrity, including universities, research institutes, research funders, publishers, and governments. The conferences are lively and interactive, and the programme consists of a mix of research findings, reflection and policy development. Conferences typically produce an influential policy statement such as the Singapore Statement, the Hong Kong Principles and the Cape Town Statement.

WCRIs take a strong view on ethnic, gender, geographical, disciplinary and career stage diversity, and ensure that this is reflected in the programme, the keynote speakers, the committee members, and the participants. We give special attention to early career professionals and we organise a doctoral forum, workshops, and meet-the-expert sessions for them during the conference.

Each WCRI emphasises a specific theme, but all cater for the whole range of research integrity issues and responsible research practices. This means that also the driving forces of the individual and collective behaviour of researchers that influence research integrity will get substantial attention. Specifically these driving forces concern the skills and virtuousness of the individual, the local research climate, and the incentives of the research system at large. The 8th WCRI will put thematic emphasis on Catalysing the translation of research into trustworthy policy and innovation.

We welcome you to Athens!

About Athens

The city of Athens is much more than what it seems.

The cradle of democracy and civilization: yet, beyond its rich history, Athens is a vibrant modern European city with an old-town feel; ancient monuments fuse with a trendy, cosmopolitan scene.

Masterpieces of significant architectural values stand tall today in a harmonious coexistence with impressive modern buildings.

German architect Ernst Ziller designed some of Athens'most iconic buildings, giving the city the architectural identity and aesthetics needed as the capital of the new Greek state. The Presidential Mansion, Iliou Melathron (which houses the Numismatic Museum of Athens today), the National Theater, and the National Archaeological Museum give only a small example of Ziller's heritage. On the other hand, modern buildings of high architectural value such as the House of Letters and Arts, the New Acropolis Museum, the Cultural Center-Stavros Niarchos Foundation, and the National Art Gallery remind us that Athens is a part of the 21st century.

In 1981, Athens hosted the ceremonial signing of Greece's accession to the European Union, while four years later, in 1985, the city was inaugurated as the first European City of Culture. At the dawn of the 21th century, Athens hosted the 2004 Olympic Games, a landmark in modern history, as the Games returned to their birthplace.

This event gave rise to the construction of large modern infrastructure such as the International Airport "Eleftherios Venizelos", the Metro, and the Attiki Odos highway. These and many more infrastructures represent the modern aspect of Athens.

This is why the capital of Greece is a unique travelling destination, especially for conferences: the city of Athens ties its past, present, and future into one exciting experience.

This is what makes Athens timeless

Please note that depending on the network speed of the viewer, a question may arrive with a delay of up to 30 seconds. It will be up to you to choose which (if any) questions you would like to address to the speaker.
5. AV staff will make sure that virtual presenters are displayed on the screen, can be heard clearly in the room and can hear what is said. They also will be on hand to assist with technical queries.

– Guidelines for Symposium Organizers

Please see the conference program for the schedule and description of the session and contact the presenters and eventual moderators before the conference to align their contributions well.

1. Please arrive at the hall at least 15 minutes before the session starts and ask before the conference all presenters and moderators to do the same.
2. Please stick to the schedule and do not allow presenters to run over time.

3. It is up to you as symposium coordinator or Chair to make sure your presenters know in advance how much time they have for their presentation and how much time you wish to allocate for Q&A and discussion.

4. Larger halls feature microphones in aisles on stands. Smaller halls feature a single microphone that can be passed around. Please note that everyone should speak on the microphone even in smaller halls, because the virtual attendees will not be able to hear them otherwise.

5. During the session, all chairs will have a screen in front of them, where written questions sent from the virtual platform or the mobile app will be displayed. Please note that depending on the network speed of the viewer, a question may arrive with a delay of up to 30 seconds. It will be up to you to choose which questions (if any) you would like to address to the speaker.

6. AV staff will make sure that eventual virtual presenters are displayed on the screen, can be heard clearly in the room, and can hear what is said. They also will be on hand to assist with technical queries.

• Instructions for Chairs   PHYSICAL ATTENDEES

– Oral Presentations

Each oral presentation is allocated a total of 15 minutes (10 minutes for the presentation, plus 5 minutes of discussion/Q&A). Presenters are kindly requested to prepare their presentation accordingly, to ensure the smooth running of the conference programme. The session chairs will make sure that each presenter is provided the same amount of time. The language of the conference is English and no simultaneous translation services will be provided.

Presentation files, in MS Powerpoint format, should be delivered to the Speakers Preparation Room – preferably on the day before the session – and not later than during the morning of the day of the session, to ensure there is sufficient time to check and make any adjustments to the files. Speakers will not be able to use their own computers to present; they are also requested to be present at the session hall at least fifteen minutes before the scheduled opening time, to meet the chairs and converse on the session flow.

– Poster Presentations

The 8th WCRI lunchtime Poster Walk Sessions offer an interactive format for stimulating the exchange of ideas among participants. Poster Walks concern subsets of posters grouped according to topic. Moderators will lead the Poster Walks, moving from poster to poster.

The first author is expected to be in attendance at their poster during the relevant Poster Walk session, depending on whether their poster has an even or an odd poster number (see below). Each presenter is expected to pitch their work for 3 minutes followed by 3 minutes of discussion and questions from the audience.

The even-number Poster Walk Session is scheduled for 12:00 to 13:30 on Monday, and the odd-number Poster Walk Session is scheduled 12:00 to 13:30 on Tuesday.

• Instructions for Posters

Posters should be mounted on the designated poster board in the poster area at the designated time. Maximum size of the poster is size A0 in portrait format (84.1 cm width x 118.9 cm height). Presenters are reminded to bring their printed posters to the conference venue. No printing service will be provided on site. The conference staff will provide materials for fixing posters to boards.

Authors should also prepare an electronic file of their poster in a vertical orientation and submit it via a personalised link that will be sent to them. The e-Poster files should be in PDF format and have a maximum size of 8 MB. The PDF files should display the posters as if those were printed for in-person presentation. We suggest using:

– Relatively large fonts

– Minimum resolution of 150 dpi

Note from the Poster & Award Committee

The language of the conference is English and no simultaneous translation services will be provided. Presenters will have two minutes to present their poster in English. We encourage you to practice your presentation several times and time it. If English is not your native language, as you prepare it could be useful to ask a native or fluent English speaker to provide feedback and help you articulate your key points effectively within 3 minutes.

Only posters where the author who submitted the poster makes a presentation during scheduled Poster Walk Sessions will qualify for awards. In addition to these two requirements, awards will be based on the following criteria (scale of 1-5 for each criterion):
